GLORIA MOLINA CONGRATULATES ‘PICTURE THE ADVENTURE—READ!’ BOOKMARK CONTEST WINNERS

Four Victorious Youth All Hail from San Gabriel Valley

LOS ANGELES (February 15, 2012)—Los Angeles County Supervisor Gloria Molina congratulated four First District winners of this year’s county public library bookmark drawing contest during a formal presentation at yesterday’s Board of Supervisors meeting. This year’s theme was “Picture the Adventure—READ! ¡Imagínate la Aventura—LEE!” Accordingly, the following youth from the First District best depicted this theme in their respective age group and received formal commendations from Sup. Molina:

- Andrew Lam, a 2nd grader who uses the Rosemead Public Library
- Anindita Singh, a 4th grader who visits the Claremont Public Library
- Ishbel Meza, a 6th grader who enjoys the South El Monte Public Library
- Seila Renteria, an 11th grader who is a patron of the Baldwin Park Public Library

“Each week, the Board of Supervisors makes decisions on up to 100 items, and every one of them is easier to make than deciding which bookmarks deserve to win the top prize each year,” Molina said. “It is a joy to go through all the wonderful entries, and it’s really an inspiration for the young people participating in the contest.”

Pictures of this year’s winners—and their winning bookmarks—are available in the “Photo Gallery” section of Sup. Molina’s website at <http://molina.lacounty.gov/>.
